

Weavers' Roundtable Program Schedule -2018-2019

Meetings will be held the second Wednesday of the month at the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, City Park, Hagerstown, Md. 10 a.m. to about 12 or 1 p.m.

Museum Family Fest: September 15, 2018, Bring a small loom or spinning wheel, inkle loom, bead loom, card weaving, bobbin lace, kumihemo or a work in progress to demonstrate. 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Sample Exchange: “Black, White Plus 2 Colors” - Exchange samples at the Central Pennsylvania Guild meeting in East Berlin, PA– May 1, 2019, 10 a.m.

PROGRAMS

September 12, 2018 Introduction to Sample Exchange Study Project – “Black, White Plus 2 Colors” – Karel Henneberger and Barbara Diefenderfer. Bring program related samples and items you entered at Ag Expo.

October 10, 2018 Introduction to Warp Faced Weaves – Plain and Complex – Deb Lawson. Bring related samples.

November 14, 2018 Loom Controlled Lace, Huck Lace, 4 shafts and so many more – Barbara Diefenderfer.

December 12, 2018 Holiday Brunch. Continuous Strand Weaving – Heather Griffith. Show and Tell about gifts you plan to give away. Bring a covered dish, place setting, serving utensils, a handwoven placemat.

January 9, 2019 Begin the New Year by finishing an old project or solving a problem. We will host an Old-fashioned Sewing Circle and Spin-in so bring your spinning or a project in progress to work on and inspire others. Guests are always welcome.

February 13, 2019 Loom Controlled Lace, Swedish Lace – Christa Lemons. Bring your Swedish Lace samples.

March 13, 2019 Pre-Columbian Weaving – Catherine McKillop. Bring the information you may have gathered over the years.

April 10, 2019 Weaving With Handspun Yarns – Bonnie Frederick and Elaine Parry. Let us see what you have created.

May 1, 2019 Sample Exchange presentation – See details above. 10 a.m.

May 8, 2019 Point Twills – Myriad Possibilities – Barbara Diefenderfer. Bring point twill examples.

June 12, 2019 Covered dish luncheon. Bring place settings, serving utensils and woven placemat if you have one. Program – Cold water dyeing of cellulose fibers. Bring a prepared warp to dye. This program will be outside and will last into the afternoon. There will be a nominal fee to be determined.

Note: Winter meetings are cancelled if Washington County Schools are delayed due to bad weather. You may check school schedules at ‘WDVM Hagerstown.com’. Bring a friend, a smile and any examples that relate to the topic of the meeting. SHOW and TELL items are strongly encouraged at every meeting.

Any questions? Contact Barb Diefenderfer at 301-797-4282 or diefenderfer2@myactv.net.